The result was The Hopkins 1 Records, III. 37. Grammar School. Its yearly support from the town wax 30, and Mr. Davenport paid from the Hopkins bequest 10 more. The school wa feeble during the first years, when the town was changing rules aud rulers, but Mr. Davenport, though evidently aging fast, watched over it with unremitting zeal. Into the Town-Meeting of February 7, 1668, he came, and made some querulous remarks about the attendance at the school. He threatened the withdrawal from the town of his portion of the Hopkins estate unless the children went to the school, To be taught for the fitting them for the service of God in church and commonwealth. Whereupon Roger Ailing declared his purlose of bringing up one of his sons to learning, and six other good men made similar statements. And Mr. Augur said that he intended to send for a kinsman from England. The schoolmaster, Mr. Samuel Street, Declared that eight were now in latting, three more would be, in summer, and two more before next winter. Probably Secretary James Bishops knowledge of latting was slight and shaky. Mr. Davenport seemed to obtain satisfaction from what was said, and proceeded to urge that The town should endow the school with a farm, which the town debated. 1 Before Mr. Davenport left the town, a few weeks later, he made sure that New Haven should not lose the funds which he had hitherto held...
