Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Student s Prayer-Book: The Text of Morning and Evening Prayer and Litany With Notes On reading carefully the long and somewhat complicated title of the book which we familiarly call the Prayer-Book, we see that it is divided into four parts, viz. Common Prayer, the Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies, the Psalter, and the Ordination Services. It is with the first and third of these that we deal in this book. Our Lord Himself ordered the two sacraments, Baptism and Holy Communion, to be administered, and the very earliest Christian records show that the Lords Supper was the central part of the service which Christians held on every Lords Day. Sunday Services. - We should expect then to find that the history of the Administration of the Sacraments would take us farther back into the primitive life of the Church of Christ than the history of Common Prayer. And, indeed, we have an interesting account of a Sunday service with its administration of Holy Communion given us by Justin Martyr in the second century, and from his time onwards the descriptions of the Communion Service become frequent and full, and the service itself more and more elaborate.
