One Thousand Years

By David Ray

Timberline Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 124 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.8in. x 0.4in. Internationally-recognized poet David Ray's newest collection of poems explores the Holocaust in all its terror and moral abhorrence. This powerfully-written gathering uses personal narratives, dramatic monologues and direct addresses to Hitler and his associates to create a moving expression of outrage, one that stands both as protest and exorcism to the many atrocities committed during the World War II era. From The Perimeters of Grief He had in mind a thousand year Reich, and one thousand years it shall be, for the grief must be included, the thousand year Kaddish. It will take one thousand years for the monsters to finish their death throes, at last purged of the poison they spewed. It will take one thousand years for the last print of Triumph of the Will to crumble to dust, for those flickering shadows to fall the rest of the way into darkness, for those torch-lit faces, thousands caught in hypnotic trance, to leave off their worshipful gaze at the sky, awaiting Herr Hitler, their Savior, descending out of the clouds, touching ground as if he were Christ in his robes, blessing his people.
