R. Richard Pinger was connected with the University of California, first as a graduate student and assistant and then as instructor and Assistant Professor of German, from 1905 to his death in 1917. He was an enthusiastic and inspiring teacher, an indefatigable worker in various university activities, and withal a devoted and constant student in his chosen field of Goethe philology. Gifted with extraordinary energy he made demands upon himself to which even his exceptional physical vigor was not permanently equal; he was stricken in the classroom and died after a year of total disability. Overwork had cut short a career rich in promise of scholarly achievement. His dissertation on Der junge Goethe und das Publikum (1908) was only the first fruit of a comprehensive investigation covering the entire life of his favorite author; he left a vast collection of well ordered material ready for elaboration. A paper on Laurence Sterne's Influence upon Goethe, read before the Philological Association in 1911, was a by-product of his main work; additional material assembled by him in subsequent years and new light thrown upon certain aspects of the subject by other scholars led him to plan an exhaustive inquiry into the relations between Goethe and Sterne for the Semicentennial Publications of the University of California in 1918. After his death the Department of German decided to consummate this plan as a tribute to his memory. Mrs. Pinger made her husband's notes available and supplemented them with valuable hints as to the views and intentions he had expressed to her verbally; and Dr. Lawrence M. Price, whose particular interest in English-German literary relations...
